

24+ Advanced Learning Loan

Aged 24 or over and thinking about further education?

If you're starting a course on or after 1 August 2013 you may qualify for a 24+ Advanced Learning Loan. These loans help you to pay the fees charged by colleges and training organisations. Most learners aged 24 and over, studying at Level 3 or Level 4 and Advanced and Higher Apprenticeships, will qualify for these new loans from the UK government. It's easy to apply, your household income isn't taken into account and there's no credit check. You won't have to pay anything back until your income is over £21,000 a year.

Key facts

Read this fact sheet along with the 'Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) – Learners' which you'll find at nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk/advancedlearningloans. You can also get more information from your college or training organisation.

Making the right choice

It's important you consider your own circumstances and look into all options for paying for your course before choosing to take out a loan. If you want advice on managing your finances you can get impartial money advice from the Money Advice Service at moneyadviceservice.org.uk

How much can I get?

The amount you can get depends on your course, the fees charged by your college or training organisation and maximum amounts set by the government.

The minimum loan amount is £300.

You can take out a loan for the maximum amount to cover your fee or you can pay all or part of the fee yourself.

Course fees

The fee for your course will be set by your college or training organisation. They'll confirm the cost and the amount that can be covered by a loan before you enrol.

24+ Advanced Learning Loans are administered by Student Finance England (SFE).

How's the loan paid?

Student Finance England will pay your agreed loan to your college or training organisation once they've confirmed your attendance on the course.

How many loans can I get?

You can have up to a maximum of four 24+ Advanced Learning Loans. You can only take out one loan at a time for non A Level courses.

For A Levels it's different. You can apply for up to four loans to cover the costs of your A Level Programme (this includes A Levels, AS and A2 qualifications). If you're studying for more than one A Level at the same time, you can apply for up to four loans at the same time – one for each A Level. You can also get three more loans for non A Level courses at different times.

Access to HE Diplomas

If you're undertaking an Access to HE Diploma and then go on to complete an HE qualification, the outstanding balance of your 24+ Advanced Learning Loan will be written off.

To qualify for this write off you must have fully completed both courses. You do not need to take out a loan for the HE course. However, it must be eligible for funding by Student Finance England.

The HE course does not have to relate to the Access to HE course you complete.

Repayment

Repaying your 24+ Advanced Learning Loan is straightforward

- your monthly repayments will be based on your income, not what you borrowed
- you'll only start making repayments when your income is more than £404 per week, £1,750 per month or £21,000 per year
- you'll only pay back 9% of any income above £21,000 a year, see the table below for examples of what you'll repay:

Income each year before tax	Monthly salary	Monthly repayment
Up to £21,000	£1,750	£0
£22,000	£1,833	£7
£25,000	£2,083	£30
£30,000	£2,500	£67
£35,000	£2,917	£105
£40,000	£3,333	£142

So, if you're paid monthly and earn £2,500 before tax you would repay 9% of the difference between what you earn and what the individual threshold is: $£2,500 - £1,750 = £750$ 9% of £750 = £67.50

Your loan repayment would be £67 in that month. If your income drops or rises, for example if you receive a bonus, your repayment amount will automatically change to reflect this.

You can make voluntary repayments at any time to pay off your loan more quickly.

- If you're self-employed you'll be responsible for making student loan repayments as part of your annual self-assessment tax return
- If you're employed, you don't need to do anything. Your employer will take your repayments directly off your salary as they do with tax and national insurance contributions
- If you stop working, your repayments will stop and only start again when your income is more than £21,000 a year

Repayment continued

- You'll be due to start repaying your loan in the April after you leave or finish your course – whichever comes first. If you leave or finish your course before April 2016, you won't start making repayments through the tax system until after this date. You can make voluntary repayments at any time.
- Any loan remaining 30 years after you're due to start making repayments will be written off.

Interest

Some of the interest on your loan will be based on inflation (Retail Price Index (RPI)). The table below shows how interest is calculated:

	Interest rate
While you're studying and until the April after you finish or leave your course	Retail Price Index (RPI) plus 3%
If you finish or leave your course before April 2016	RPI plus 3% until the April after you leave your course then RPI
From April 2016	Interest will be based on your income. £21,000 or less – RPI £21,001 to £41,000 – RPI plus up to 3%, depending on income £41,000 and over – RPI plus 3%
